PROJECTS

Bikes and Bikers (React/Redux, Rails 5, Google Maps API)   live | github

AirBnb inspired FullStack Project that users can search for motorcycle rentals and book them

- Utilized Google Maps to dynamically generate and display listings based on longitude and latitude, allowing a user to seamlessly browse listings based on geography
- Established user authentication process using bcrypt and React Router to ensure user security
- Implemented AWS3 for image storage to improve load time efficiency for site navigation

MenuTube (Javascript, ReactJS, Mongoose, MongoDB, NodeJS, Express.js)   live | github

MERN Stack Team Project where users can upload videos of their recipes and how to cook it

- Coordinated with Backend and Frontend Lead as the Flex Developer to isolate any bugs and issues that needed resolving allowing efficient and concurrent development
- Promoted improvements and tweaked UI/UX on overall project to improving user experience and visuals
- Reused components of members and refactored them into less code
- Reviewed git pushes to ensure there are no conflicts when merging with production page

Just Bounce(JavaScript, p5, HTML)   live | github

Javascript Canvas collision game that scales vertically where you dodge projectiles

- Applied p5js library to create object and controllable player models with a canvas platform
- Integrated vanilla javascript to create collision detection between player and platforms, as well as enemy projectiles
- Employed event listeners on the document waiting for user input to control the character on the canvas
